

The Toronto Congress Centre responds to earthquake in Haiti

(TORONTO, Feb 2, 2010) – The Toronto Congress Centre a division of Congress Centres Inc. reached out to its industry suppliers and customers by initiating a pledge in the amount of $20,000.00 to be donated to The Canadian Red Cross Haiti Earthquake fund, encouraging industry to follow.

“The dedication and compassion of our industry suppliers and customers truly shined because the response was immediate” explains Mr. Alain Sutton, Chair and CEO of Congress Centres Inc. “in just 10 short days The Toronto Congress Centre was able to contribute a combined total of $56,175.00 with the overwhelming support of our industry partners.”

Canadians are encouraged to support Red Cross relief efforts by making a financial donation to the Canadian Red Cross Haiti Earthquake fund. Donations can be made online at www.redcross.ca/helpnow , by calling toll free 1-800-418-1111 or at any Red Cross office. Cheques should be earmarked Haiti Earthquake.

Founded and privately owned and operated since 1995 The Toronto Congress Centre has hosted many of the largest and most prestigious meetings and expositions in Canada. The Toronto Congress Centre is located at 650 Dixon Road near Pearson International Airport, Toronto Ontario, Canada M9W 1J1. For more information: 416-245-5000 or www.torontocongresscentre.com

-30-

For more information contact:

Cara Carey, Vice President
Customer Experience and Corporate Communications
The Toronto Congress Centre
416-245-5000 ext. 2227
ccarey@torontocongresscentre.com